THE Now Generation

Kennard-Dale High School

Fawn Grove, Pa.

1967-68

Foreword

Life is right now and today is where it all exists. Things are happening throughout the world and here at Kennard-Dale. The special events, the sports, the activities, and all the good times are a part of today. We, the 1968 Fawn Staff wish to introduce you to the "Now Generation."

MR. CHESTER REXROTH

To express our sincere gratitude, we, the FAWN staff of 1968, dedicate this yearbook to a man who has given to us so freely of his time and talents. His assistance in our activities, his interest in our intellectual growth, and his personal concern for our general well-being have forever placed him in our memories.

With deep appreciation we proudly dedicate the 1968 FAWN to

Mr. Chester Rexroth

SCHOOL BOARD: Row one—J. McGinnis, Pres.; R. Halsted, V. Pres.; M. Pomraning, Sec.; C. Manifold, Treas. Row two—F. Boyle, Solicitor; C. Luttore, F. Kane, J. Hushon, R. Morris, W. Cowl, C. Shaw, (Absent—M. Krechmer).

SECRETARIES: A. Blevins, C. Hewell, M. Pomraning, N. Anderson.

Dear Seniors:

Your graduation from Kennard-Dale High School is neither the end nor the beginning. It is the end of the beginning.

The experiences you received in the schools of the South Eastern School District have provided you the opportunity to wedge open the gateway of self-reliance, to initiate development of your mind, to widen your interests, to deepen your self-understanding, and to increase your realization of the world around us.

Accept this basic preparation as the end of the beginning, and continue to enlarge upon these experiences and make your contributions to the world worthy of your best efforts.

Congratulations to you on your graduation. You have reached the end of the beginning.

Sincerely yours,
Richard K. Grove
Supervising Principal

Richard K. Grove

Dear Seniors:

One of the most important goals of your life will be attained with your graduation from high school.

It is imperative that each of you remember that there are many more goals to be attained in the school of life. The constant upheaval in the social and economic patterns of our society will continue to set new goals before you.

Your success or failure in the attainment of life's goals rests squarely in your hands. Your parents, teachers, and the Board of Education have confidence in your ability to face the future. The challenge of all the tomorrows is yours, the Class of 1968.

Sincerely yours,
James F. Howell
Principal

James F. Howell

Dear Seniors:

Congratulations to each of you for having earned your diploma.

I am confident the past years at Kennard-Dale have provided you with a solid foundation for future educational endeavors. Never forget; education is a continuous and lifelong process.

I sincerely hope each of you experience a happy and successful future.

Robert E. Brown
Assistant Principal

Robert E. Brown

Dear Graduates:

The years of formal public education are concluded. For many of the class, advanced study is planned. Whatever your decision is for the future, I sincerely hope that each and every graduate will join the mainstream of American life as sincere responsible citizens. My wishes for a successful life follow you.

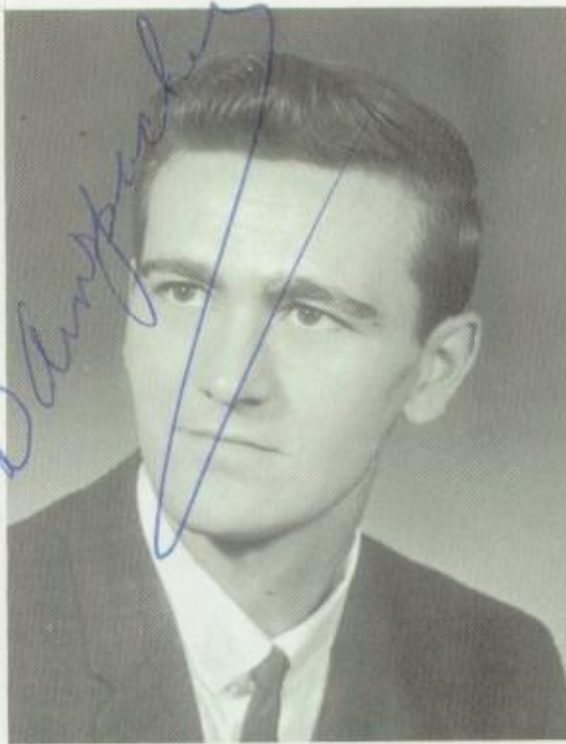

Sincerely yours,
Conrad C. Shuman

As this our last year at K. D. ends,
We find it's too late to make amends.
We Seniors may display joy or tears.
As we glance back at the past six years.

Together we have traveled many miles,
To Gettysburg, Harrisburg, each trip filled with smiles.
Delaware and Washington were ours for a day;
Our visits were made in November and May.

Named Beatlemania after the mopped-topped four,
Our eighth grade dance was in '64.
The Romans' music did enhance
A Night in Rome, our sophomore dance.

Our junior prom fulfilled each dream
With Moonlight and Roses our chosen theme.
Our class had finally reached the height
With our senior dance, Wonderland by Night.

Mint green and silver were the colors we chose,
For our class flower—the buds of the white rose.
As our high-school days end, we will scatter afar.
The past is gone; the future is ours.

CURTAIN GOING UP; a three act comedy by Gregory Johnson, was presented by the junior class, April 21 and 22, 1967.

It is the story, in comic terms, of the production of a high school play. The action takes place on the stage and in the auditorium, during rehearsal and after the presentation.

Among the myriad comic obstacles with which poor young Miss Burgess, the director, is faced, she also has to contend with a grouchy janitor with a sharp tongue, a flamboyant professional actress with advice, and the inconsistency of her teen-age cast.

Almost everything that can happen does, but by the end of the performance the problems work themselves out to give Miss Burgess and her cast a triumphant success.

SENIOR PLAY CAST: Seated—Joel Dougherty, Plato; Colin Reinholt, Jim Stark; Mary Beth Murrow, Judy Brown; Dan Krechmer, Buzz Gunderson; Miss Winemiller, Director. Standing—Debbie Orr, Miss Hennington; Joan Keeney, Mrs. Stark; Tim Fulton, Mr. Stark; Kathi Furber, Millie; Jane Dooley, Grandma; Lynne Glackin, Belle; Pam Anstine, Helen; Mark Monanari, Officer One; Betsy Orsburn, Mrs. Davis and Lecturer; Bill Oberlander, Goon; Jim Smith, Ray; Scott Barnes, Officer Mullin; Dave Wolf, Moase; John Dooley, Crunch; Vickie Brown, Student Director; Ray Manifold, Officer Two; Mr. Brown, Jeff Hersey; Linda Thompson, Mrs. Brown; Jeff Farrington, A man.

On November 17 and 18, 1967, the senior class presented Rebel without a Cause, a drama by James Fuller.

The story is one of conflict of a teenage boy against the authority of an older generation. Jim Stark, a new boy in the school, has to prove himself to become a gang member. His test, the tragic chicken run ended with death for the gang leader. Finding no understanding from his parents, Jim hides in a deserted mansion with his only friends, Plato and Judy. When the gang finds Plato in the mansion, they threaten him, and in fear he shoots a member and runs.

Realizing Jim is trying to help him, Plato gives up his gun. The play ends with a realization that the two generations must strive to become closer.

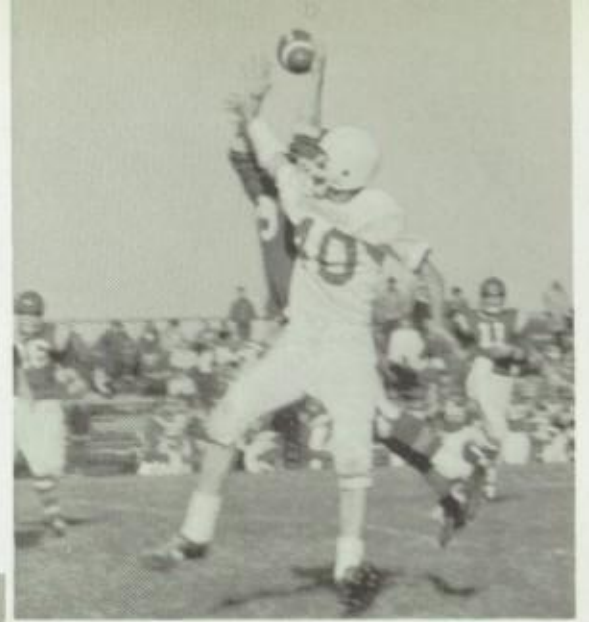

A mystical fountain, a garden wall, and an atmosphere of moonlight and roses made the evening of May 12 unforgettable in the memories of all who attended the Junior and Senior Prom.

Jim Emery and Nina Lewis reigned as our royal couple over their court and the dance. The night was truly one of Moonlight and Roses.

Homecoming

Homecoming

Homecoming . . . a weekend away from reality . . . Friday, seventh period, with classes forgotten, the cheerleaders started the weekend festivities by leading the student body in cheers.

Excitement mounted as the bonfire on Friday night began. By game time Saturday, Homecoming '68 was really in full motion. A mighty Ram football squad battled against the brawn of Bermudian Springs for the '68 Homecoming game.

The highlight of the weekend, the Homecoming Dance, Saturday night, enticed cheerleader Chris Bush to doff her uniform and reign as the '68 Homecoming Queen.

Wonderland

By Night

Sleigh bells, glistening snow, and sparkling Christmas trees combined to transform the evening of December 15 into a "Wonderland By Night," the theme for the 1968 Christmas Dance.

A snowy toboggan served as the throne for the royal couple, Joan Keeney and Jeff Hersey; while tiny elves in the persons of Sandy Bush and Doug Orr served to enhance the wonderland atmosphere.
